WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The Sisters of Charity (Grey Nuns) worked tirelessly beginning in the 1800s to establish a hospital in Calgary's inner city. This hospital would be known as the Holy Cross, and it would emerge as a health care pioneer. Holy Cross Manor honours this pioneering hospital.

LIVING AT HOLY CROSS MANOR

People living at Holy Cross Manor qualify for Supportive Living 4 (SL4) care after an assessment by an Alberta Health Services (AHS) Case Manager. If you or your loved one qualifies for this level of care, AHS Transition Services will consult with you and you may choose to live at Holy Cross Manor. Placement at Holy Cross Manor will depend on its current occupancy and there may be a waiting list.

WORKING AT HOLY CROSS MANOR

We recruit staff of all faiths, traditions and cultures.
